Hoppy Spring

by Janet M Bair

It's always fun to look at new spring fabrics. Soft yellows, greens and pinks set my imagination going. What can I make with this? If it's too cute to leave in the store, I will often splurge and just buy half a yard. I can always make a doll dress for my granddaughter or cloth napkins for our dinner table.

By far, the hardest spring patterns to walk away from are the bunny prints. If they are lop-eared bunnies, the ones with the long floppy ears, I am sold.

I grew up a cat lover but my husband and daughter are allergic to cats. However, they are not allergic to rabbits. Thus, began my long love affair with bunnies. Their soft droopy ears, their cute constantly wiggling noses and their overall fluffiness make them a good petting substitute for a cat.

Bunnies are silent. They never talk back or offer critical comments. They are a peaceful pet to have. I took care of three different bunnies over the course of twenty years. Cupcake lived eleven years, Blackie three, and our littlest dwarf lop, Snickers or Snicky five years.

Although they often sit very still, they are surprisingly swift. When we let Snicky out of his cage, he would race down the hall and zoom under our bed right to the middle. No matter how far I stretched my arm under the bed, he always evaded me. Defeated by five pound of sneaky black and white fluff, I would walk away. Eventually he would come out from his hiding place.

To commemorate my bunny chasing days, this spring I am going to put a backing to a panel of bunnies and ducklings romping through the grass. It will be a good reminder that even though the snows have been deep this winter, spring always comes. The seasons flow onward.

Although it seems that all the bunny decorations in the stores have little to do with the real message of Easter, they are still fun to look at. I guess bunnies are used because they literally hop for joy. And isn't that what the season is all about? Not only do the days get longer and warmer, but we can rejoice in that Jesus is risen and the tomb is empty.

After His resurrection, "Suddenly, Jesus was standing there among them!...They were filled with joy when they saw the Lord!" John 20:19,20 (TLB—The Living Bible)

BEDFORD - DONEGAL - MT PLEASANT - SOUTH PARK

Egg Roll in a Bowl

The recipe has the flavors of our favorite egg rolls in a simplified bowl.

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| Ingredients:  | 4 cloves garlic, minced                 |
| 1 lb. ground chicken or ground pork                       | 16 oz. coleslaw mix or shredded cabbage |
| 4 green onions thinly sliced, whites and greens separated | 3 Tbsp soy sauce                        |
| 2 tsps grated fresh ginger                                | 1 tsp sesame oil or to taste            |
|   | Sesame seeds for garnish – optional     |

In a 10-inch skillet over medium-high heat, brown the ground chicken or pork, breaking it up with a wooden spoon. Drain any fat. Stir in the whites of the green onions, ginger, garlic, and coleslaw mix. Cook, stirring occasionally, until the coleslaw becomes tender, about 5 minutes. Stir in soy sauce and sesame oil and cook for 1 minute more. Divide into bowls and garnish with greens of green onions and sesame seeds.

All Blue Ridge Shop Hop
May 1 - June 31, 2026

Shop Hops Offer Quilting Enthusiasts Fun, Inspiration, and Special Memories

Calling all Blue Ridge quilters: On Your Mark. Get Set. Shop Hop!

Shop Hop Inc manages large scale events across the United States and is excited to introduce the all-new All Blue Ridge Shop Hop. This reconfigured event is planned for the states of North Carolina, Virginia, and West Virginia in May and June, offering a brand-new adventure for Shop Hoppers to enjoy.

Virginia, and West Virginia were previously part of the All Mid-Atlantic Shop Hop, and North Carolina belonged to the All Carolinas Shop Hop. Shop Hop Inc is shaking things up for 2026 to keep all the events fresh and exciting for Hoppers. This new Hop gives Shop Hoppers the chance to explore a wider range of shops and discover new treasures across these beautiful states.

Known as “The Great Sewing Adventure™ Across the Blue Ridge,” this event offers unique benefits not available in smaller hops. Features include the All Blue Ridge Shop Hop Magazine, free patterns, a fun thank-you gift from each store for visiting Shop Hoppers, and chances to win prizes at the end of the event. An exclusive Blue Ridge-themed fabric line can be purchased at participating stores. There is no purchase necessary to participate or to win prizes.

In May and June of 2026, more than 80 North Carolina, Virginia, and West Virginia stores will host Shop Hoppers. The All Blue Ridge Shop Hop Magazine, which serves as a guide, goes on sale mid-March of 2026 at participating stores.

Never heard of a Shop Hop? Though initially unique to the quilting and sewing industry, Shop Hops are “cousins” to other marketing events that promote certain industries (think pub crawls, antique road shows, road rallies, and similar events in the food industry). Customers visit a quilting and sewing store, SHOP, and then HOP to the next store to repeat the process.

Shop Hops introduce quilting and sewing enthusiasts to participating stores. They are also a way for stores to showcase their unique personalities, offerings, and talents to new and returning customers.

Typically, Shop Hoppers collect stamps or stickers at each store they visit. They are also offered chances to win prizes or earn discounts. Shop Hops can vary in size from a few stores in one area to 100+ stores across an entire state or region.

In a day when brick and mortar retail locations are dwindling across the nation, a Shop Hop works to keep quilting and sewing stores thriving, so customers can continue to touch and feel the fabric in person.

In addition to supporting quilting and sewing stores, a Shop Hop also has a significant positive economic impact on tourism and other travel-related businesses. Thousands of Shop Hoppers converge on the cities where stores are located – eating, shopping, and staying overnight. Shop Hop Inc manages large-scale shopping events across the country and estimates that, depending on the number of stores involved, the economic impact to a state can range from $4.5 to over $9 million.

For Shop Hoppers, the experience is also about making memories. Many quilters hop with friends, family, or their favorite “quiltie” as they travel the Hop together. Besides visiting sewing stores, Shop Hoppers also enjoy traveling through large and small towns, discovering parts of the state they may have never visited before.

Letters Worth Writing Home About

by Kerri Habben Bosman

Since I could write, I have loved writing letters. One of my favorite gifts as a child was new stationery, the kind that came in a pretty box with matching paper and envelopes all bound together by a ribbon. I was the kid that couldn't wait to write "thank you" letters.

It helped that I saw family writing letters. Dad often used his clipboard with watermarked paper on top of a ruled guide so that each line he wrote would be properly spaced. His handwriting was exceptional, having grown up when penmanship was an indicator of character. Uncle Henry, who lived across the street from us, always had his old Royal typewriter on their dining room table except for family dinners. I loved using his typewriter. I'd leave him a note if he wasn't in the room and then the next time, I came over one was waiting for me. When he died in 1992, I placed a typed note in his suit pocket. It read: "I came by to see you today. I pray that I shall live well enough to see you again."

Ten years later by coincidence, I became pen pals with the son of someone Uncle Henry knew in the 1930's. I never met Harold in person, but we were both writers. We sent works-in progress for the other's suggestions. We wrote for 12 years.

When I was 20, my dad suggested I write to the widow of a captain he'd worked with before retiring after 40 years as a ship dispatcher. He thought we'd have a lot in common. We did, and we telephoned and wrote letters for over 20 years. When Dad died in 2001, I called Jane, ready with the prepared speech I'd used in the "letting people know" calls. Except that when I tried to talk to Jane, my throat suddenly became a glob of wet marbles. Her response to my garbled words has stayed with me. "Old shipmates are always old shipmates."

Perhaps the most important letters I have ever written are the over 700 letters sent to my mother-in-law. I wrote to her at least two times a week from when I first met her in 2019 to her passing in late 2025 at the age of 104. She lived 1,021 miles from us in Kenosha, Wisconsin. My letters shared all that was happening for us and all of our family here. Most of us rely on emails and texts now, but Mom didn't. She needed letters to be read and reread with a cup of tea and a cookie or two.

In person I called her "Mom," but in my letters I addressed her as "Mary," her given name. By the time Wayne and I married in 2020, she was 100 years old and had long been "Mom," and "Grandma Mary." With most of her peers no longer with us, I wanted her to see herself as she'd been her whole life.

Her letters were written on handmade cards with pictures and details of the kids, namely her grown grandchildren, their spouses and ever-growing great-grandchildren. She knew when laundry was in the dryer and what was for dinner. She knew how the garden was growing and how each of us was evolving too. Most importantly, she knew she was a part of each of us all the time. Each letter ended with: "Wayne sends his love, as do I. We think of you every day."

Selfishly perhaps, I miss writing to Mom. At 104 she had earned a peace beyond our temporal and limited world. But I am also comforted because old shipmates in our sea of life will always be old shipmates. And I pray that I shall live well enough to see her again.

A Cup of Tea with Lydia

A Milestone Nine-TEA-eth Party

by Lydia E. Harris

Colorful streamers, balloons, and tablecloths waited to welcome the senior ladies who met weekly for tea and treats in the community room.

But this time they gathered to celebrate my sister Erna's nine-TEA-eth birthday. The rose and gold floral-print napkins and paper plates said: "90 Fabulous." Her three daughters and grandson had arrived early to prepare the setting.

Tasty Treats

The buffet table held a delicious array of foods, including cranberry brie bites, a variety of crackers, and a charcuterie board loaded with an assortment of cheeses, meats, and colorful dried fruit. But the main feature was a homemade gluten-free three-layer vanilla cake with strawberry cream cheese frosting, topped with two large candles: a nine and a zero.

Other treats included homemade cranberry nut triangles, chocolate chip cookies, jam thumbprints, and lemon crinkle cookies (see recipe). Oh my—what a wonderful tea time with sugar and spice and everything nice.

Big Surprise

Twenty women from the retirement community, plus friends and relatives, came to honor Erna. But the big surprise was that her oldest daughter and grandson had flown from California to Michigan to help celebrate this milestone. How I wish I could have flown in from Washington State.

As usual, the women could select a teacup and teabag and brew their favorite tea. But today, wearing her crowning tiara, Erna reigned as queen.

As the ladies sipped their tea, they chatted and honored Erna.

Erna was all smiles, feeling treasured and blessed.

Special Memories

Later Erna reported by phone, "The party was a lot of fun and very special!" At her apartment, she was surrounded by the party decorations and cherished the memories of a wonderful time.

Young at heart and very talented, my sister Erna has had a memorable life and has blessed many. She wrote a Bible study guide for the book of Acts and coauthored a musical, Who Is My Neighbor? Most recently, in 2025, with the help of her daughter Lois, she published a book. Strong in her faith and wanting to showcase God, He Was Always There: A Book of Stories and Miracles by Erna Craven records events from her life, including our father's miraculous release from a Russian prison years before her birth.

After coming to America in 1929 with their two sons, her parents, Nicolai and Helena Siemens, added six girls to their family. I am blessed to be the youngest. Over the years, I've enjoyed many happy occasions and teatimes with my family and friends.

So how would you celebrate a special event or milestone birthday? However, you make merry, I recommend rejoicing with family and friends over a cup of tea!

© Lydia E. Harris enjoys serving tea to family and friends. Her books include: Preparing My Heart for Grandparenting, In the Kitchen with Grandma: Stirring Up Tasty Memories Together, and GRAND Moments: Devotions Inspired by Grandkids

From Lydia's Recipe File:

Lemon Crinkle Cookies

- |                                   |   |
|-----------------------------------|---|
| 1 cup granulated sugar            | 1-3/4 cups flour  |
| 1/2 cup (1 stick) softened butter | 1-1/2 tsp. baking powder                                  |
| 1 tsp. vanilla extract            | 1-1/2 tsp. salt   |
| 1 tsp. lemon extract              | 1/2 cup powdered sugar                                    |
| 1 tbsp. lemon zest                | 1/2 to 1 cup lemon curd, homemade or purchased (optional) |
| 2 eggs                            |   |

Directions:

1. In a large bowl, cream together the butter and granulated sugar until light and fluffy.
2. Stir in vanilla extract, lemon extract, and lemon zest.
3. Beat in eggs, one at a time.
4. Mix together the flour, baking powder, and salt.
5. Add the dry ingredients to the creamed mixture. Do not overmix.
6. Cover dough and refrigerate for one hour.
7. Preheat the oven to 350° F.
8. Shape dough into 1-inch balls and roll them in powdered sugar. Place them two inches apart on a parchment-lined cookie sheet.
9. Bake for 13–15 minutes until edges are lightly brown and tops do not look wet.
10. Cool on the cookie sheet for 2 minutes. Then transfer to a cooling rack to cool completely.

Recipe makes about 3 dozen cookies.

Variation: For a burst of fresh lemon flavor, sandwich two cookies together with a teaspoon of lemon curd just before serving.

Optional variation: Sandwich two cookies together with cream cheese frosting. If using cream cheese frosting, store cookies in an airtight container in the refrigerator.

Life on My Farm - Breezy Manor

Garden Fairies

by Donna Jo Copeland, farmeress

I believe in magic, always have. And a garden is one of the places magic truly happens.

Think about it. We take a seed or a cutting, put them into our garden soil, water and wait. Sometimes beautiful plants emerge giving us fabulous flowers, wonderful fruits and vegetables. Sometimes not. That's where magic comes in, I believe.

The growing of plants, any plant brings us joy. Nurturing a growing entity speaks to our souls. I think it's the same for farmers as well as gardeners. You can do everything right and still fail. But when it all works then there's magic.

Every year in my gardens I plan something new. For instance, new beds, new plant varieties, new methods. And I always ask for the blessings of the fairies. I leave blue bottles (for that is the favorite color of fairies), upturned flower pots, dense foliage for their homes and shelter.

I used to have a lovely stack of blue and green bottles in a corner of the garden but it collapsed. This year I intend to fashion a more permanent bottle tower. Bottles facing east for the morning fairies, west for the evening ones.

Morning fairies have wings glistening with dew drops and are very busy flitting around as they rejoice in the sunshine, blessing plants. Evening fairies are the ones I notice most gracefully floating over plants at eventide, pausing to say their prayers.

Gardens can calm a troubled or stressed mind. Hands in the soil, green growing plants surrounding you, magic fills your aura.

The queen of the garden fairies I think is the beloved dragon fly. With her majestic wings and her playful silhouette, the Queen hovers over your garden spreading magic. Be still and listen you can hear her singing.

Last year due to incessant rain I couldn't get my vegetable garden soil tilled. I grew tomatoes, peppers, cucumbers, green beans and potatoes in old feed sacks. Filling them half full of barn compost and sweepings, I punched holes in the bottom for drainage and set them up against the fence. Very little watering required and no weeding. Will be doing this again with more sacks.

The real beauty in this method is when harvest is over you just dump the bags out on the garden, enriching the soil. Some of the feed sacks I will reuse, some I will burn.

As the world is a scary, stressful place right now I urge you all to plant a garden, large or small. Size doesn't matter, it's the fresh air, the growing, the tending. Watch for garden fairies, give them a safe place. Let their magic enfold you.

Peace and love,

Donna Jo

Wit & Wisdom

The Garden

by Juleann Lattimer

Tree branches rustled at the touch of the soft breeze. Stars dotted the night sky as the moon's glow shined like a spotlight, illuminating the figure of a man stooped over on his knees. Hands clenched at his chest, his face searching the heavens. A thick silence filled the air, except for the lone cry of an anguished voice, pleading upwards towards the sky. Just beyond the shaded walk lay three men, fast asleep. It was a strange picture – one struggling in deep despair, three sleeping in silent serenity.

Have you ever struggled in that shadowy garden – facing something that will not be resolved? Can't be fixed? No way out? All alone? You're not.

The One who anguished on His knees that night in the garden didn't stay there. A few hours later He went to the cross, from the cross to the grave, but He didn't stay there either. He arose on the third day, and has secured a place for us with Him in heaven. Because of this, even though we sometimes find ourselves in a dark shadowy garden, we're never alone. He is with us and has promised, "I will never desert you, nor will I ever forsake you." (Hebrews 13:5)

I know. I've been in that abandoned garden. The world collapsing, life changing, struggling to hang on, but ... "Jesus is the same yesterday and today, yes and forever." (Hebrews 13:8) I've found His promises to be true.

The Beauty of Rainy Days

by Janet Young

Light rain has begun to fall, and here we are on the first week of April, preparing ourselves, to experience what traditionally has been one of the rainiest months of the year. As you watch the raindrops slide slowly down the window, have you ever stopped to think about the beauty that rain brings forth - especially in the springtime. Could it be because everything is painted beautiful...the trees look brighter, the flowers are more colorful, and rain sends a signal to the grass that it is time to wake up and start growing.

Have you ever heard the rhythmic sounds of raindrops cascading on your roof? Before long that sound, much like White Noise creates a sound so soothing, before you know it you are fast asleep.

Even in literature, rain symbolizes life, purity, being born, and cleansing. Even songs have been sung about rain. For example, A Rainy Night in Georgia, may not be a happy representation of rain, however there is the Pop song, I Love a Rainy Night. This is a catchy tune as the title implies extolling the virtues of rain. In the movies, Gene Kelly was famous for that dance scene in Singing in the Rain. And last but not least, children's nursery rhymes talked about rain in Rain, Rain Go Away, and It's raining, It's Pouring. There are many celebrations of rain.

Perhaps the next time it rains, you will have an attitude of gratitude. Because rain also supplies us with our much-needed water, that basically sustains life. I'd say that is a very important reason to embrace rainy days. So, don't let those raindrops get you down.

Instead, the next time it rains why not become like a child again. Grab your raincoat (if it is a cool day), an umbrella, and your boots. Then go for a walk in the rain. While you're at it, why not stomp your feet in a puddle or two, or if you are in a secluded area, why not dance in the rain. It will lift your spirits, and put a smile on your face.

And perhaps one of the most rewarding aspects of rain is when we get that occasional glimpse of the rainbow. I leave you with this quote from Gilbert K. Chesterton: "If you want a rainbow, you have to put up with the rain."

HAPPY SPRING!

Don't miss the Brandywine Valley Quilt Show May 29-31

Whether you've never been to a quilt show before, or you're a quilt show veteran, you won't want to miss this opportunity to explore locally-crafted quilts, celebrate our nation's history, learn about the craft of quilt, and shop with the best regional vendors.

For 250 years quilts have shared the lives and stories of Americans. Like our country, the art of quilting has evolved over time incorporating new techniques, fabrics and creativity. Many of the patterns, tools, and techniques we still use have passed from hand to hand, re-made with each generation's voice. Others are fresh inventions, expanding the possibilities of what today's quilters can achieve.

The Brandywine Valley Quilt Show is better than ever with more than 250 judged and exhibition quilts on display including two special exhibits - 'The Creatures of the Abyss' Cherrywood Quilts and our National Quilt Challenge 'America the Beautiful' Quilts.

More to enjoy:

- Shop with 20 local & national Vendors excited to offer the newest machines, gorgeous fabrics, quilting supplies, and unique jewelry and gifts.
- Quilt & Basket raffles Be tempted by our beautiful mini quilts and wonderful baskets
- Independent Quilters Quilt Shoppe - purchase handcrafted quilts created by our members
- Cloth-to-Quilt demo Starting with a weaver, and featuring quilters at work, we'll illustrate our creative art to the public. As a nod to the long history of quilting and our nation's 250th birthday, this quilt will be offered as a raffle quilt to a veteran who enters the raffle.
- Family friendly Make & Take Craft activity (suitable for all ages)

The Brandywine Valley Quilt Show is held in Aston, Pennsylvania near Philadelphia; the historic heart of our country and Lancaster, a quilter's mecca. Location: Neumann University Mirenda Center, 501 Convent Drive, Aston, PA

Celebrate the beauty and history of American quilting which binds us together, shares our stories, and might offer a vision for what we'll piece together next. We hope to see you at the Show!

Pork Chop 'n' Rice Casserole

You can also use boneless skinless chicken thighs for this recipe. I use whatever is on sale at the store that week

Ingredients:

- |                                       |                                     |
|---------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 2 cups white rice                     | 2 pounds pork chops                 |
| 8 oz button mushrooms chopped         | 1-1/4 teaspoons kosher salt         |
| 2 cans condensed beef consommé        | 3/4 tsp freshly ground black pepper |
| 1 can condensed onion soup            | 1 tsp garlic powder                 |
| 1/2 cup butter, cut into 8 pieces     | 1 tsp onion powder                  |
| 1 cup grated Parmesan cheese, divided | 1 tsp paprika                       |

Preheat the oven to 350 degrees. Stir rice, mushrooms, beef consommé, and onion soup together in a 9 x 13-inch baking dish. Top with butter pieces and 3/4 cup of the cheese. Season the pork chops evenly with salt, pepper, garlic powder, onion powder, and paprika and place on top of cheese and butter. Top with remaining cheese and cover dish with foil. Bake in the preheated oven for 55 minutes. Uncover and bake until top is golden brown, liquid has been absorbed into the rice, and the pork is cooked through, about 20 to 30 more minutes.
